1. In the area east of Lubek there are three or four Russian divisions, including one panzer division, apparently comprising a corps. The corps staff is believed to be stationed in Schwerin. There also appears to be one corps stationed in the area south of Harzen. This consists of panzer troops as well as heavy artillery troops. The region between the two wings is sparsely occupied by troops. The men in the two corps seem to be good troops; and the equipment as well as uniforms appear to be in good condition. Discipline is strict. The divisions under corps leadership have been drilling recently in the Harzen area.
2. The Rügen area is constantly restricted. What is thought to be a research laboratory is being established there.
